This, and This Alone, Will Satisfy the Cubans.

GATHERING IN GOTHAM DECLARES SO.

Manifesto to This Effect Drawn Up and Approved—Public Meeting to Be Held Friday Evening In Chickering Hall, New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A meeting of prominent Cubans, presided over by Tomas Estrada Palma, representative of the Cuban provisional government, was held in the Astor House yesterday. Great importance is attached to it in Spanish as well as Cuban circles here.

When the news of the meeting reaches Spain and Cuba, its significance will no doubt be duly appreciated there.

The men who met yesterday were not all members of the Cuban revolutionary party. Many of them were former Autonomists and Reformists and had until recently adhered to the principles sustained by their parties in Cuba. But it was unquestionable that those who assembled yesterday were representatives of all phases of Cuban society and interests. They were mainly business men, planters and professional men, lawyers, physicians, editors and professors of the University who had so far refrained from taking an active part in the contest against Spanish rule in Cuba.

Business interests, family ties or other weighty considerations had heretofore prevented them from openly showing their hostility to Spain. But yesterday, setting all such considerations aside, they who had hesitated came boldly forward and rallied to the principles of the party whose political doctrine there is only one solution to the Cuban problem, the complete separation of Cuba from Spain.

A manifesto setting forth the purpose of the meeting was drafted and submitted to the assembly for its consideration by Dr. Jose J. de Varona, the Cuban delegate to the Spanish parliament in 1879, and a former member of the Spanish parliament. The document, which is addressed to the government of the Cuban republic, states that the resolution of the Cubans abroad is to support by all means possible the men who are fighting for Cuban independence.

Great stress is laid on expressing the unanimous determination of the Cuban revolutionary party not to accept any plan of political reform or even the amplest form of autonomy offered by Spain as a settlement of the present war in Cuba.

The manifesto was approved by acclamation. The manifesto will bear the signatures of all those who were present at the meeting. It says the document is presented to the Cuban colonies throughout the United States, Mexico, the Antilles, Central and South America. Particular stress is finally transmitted to the Cuban troops and government.

Further public meetings in order to protest against any transaction with the Spanish government unless on the basis of the absolute independence of Cuba will be held next Friday evening in Chickering hall.

Spain Buys Dutch Cruisers.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Daily Chronicle says that the Spanish government has purchased the Dutch cruisers Utrecht and Friesland. The Utrecht is a steel protected cruiser of 3,900 tons displacement, built in 1896. She is armed with quick firing guns, which by the firm had already completed for the Dutch government. It is stated presumably Spain had agreed to this arrangement. When the report was first published by the correspondent of the Spanish minister of marine at the Hague, he professed to disbelieve it, but if true, he could count upon a material weakening.

Dr. Joseph E. Culver Dead.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Dr. Joseph E. Culver died at his residence, Jersey City, of pneumonia. The sickness began last Thursday. He was born in Groton, Conn., Feb. 9, 1823. He studied at the Medical college at Pittsfield, Mass., and was graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York in 1849. He was on the staff of St. Francis' hospital in Jersey City and was a charter member of the Hudson County Medical society. He is survived by his sons, Dr. S. Edward Culver, who was married last Wednesday, Dr. George M. Culver and Abel I. and Edward Culver.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The monthly statement of the director of the mint shows that the coinage executed during October aggregated $6,426,500, as follows: Gold, $2,815,000; silver, $2,301,000; minor coins, $280,000.

BURGLARS IN NEW HAVEN.

The Connecticut City Bothered Greatly by Light Fingered Gentry.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 2.—The residents of this city are greatly alarmed over a series of burglaries that have been going on for several weeks. The burglars have broken into stores in the principal streets and stolen money and merchandise.

A daring robbery was committed yesterday in Broadway, when two strangers went into the store of Vincenzo Valentano and held the proprietor up. One of the men went to the cash drawer and took the money, amounting to about $30. The robbers then made their escape.

A burglary committed at the New Haven House, the leading hotel here, has also been reported, but the detectives are reticent about it. The summer cottage of United States Senator Joseph R. Hawley, at Woodmont, was among the houses visited by the burglars. The cottage, which is unoccupied, was thoroughly ransacked, and the carpets and furniture were carried away. Some of the goods stolen from Senator Hawley's house were recovered by the police in a pawnshop. The police have failed thus far to catch any of the burglars.

PERHAPS ANOTHER VICTIM.

Body Found In Hudson River May Be That of a Garrisons Unfortunate.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Nov. 2.—The body of a man was found floating in the Hudson river about two miles north of this place. It was apparently that of a Frenchman about 35 years of age. The body is that of a man 5 feet 6 inches tall, well dressed and had been in the water about a week.

In a pocket a watch was found, with the initials F. B. engraved on the case. The cuff buttons bore the same initials. In an inside pocket a letter head with the name Felix Balta, 81 Nassau street, was found. Coroner Apgar had the body brought here and placed in Dorsey's parlors.

He telegraphed an inquiry to 81 Nassau street, New York, and got a reply that Mr. Balta was in business at that address, but had been away for some time. He was last heard of, the coroner's informant said, in Montreal two weeks ago.

The man probably came from Montreal on the ill fated Buffalo special which was attached near Garrisons on the 25th ult. A number of Montreal newspapers and $2 were found in his pockets.

Think He Is Murderer Mosely.

ABINGTON, Mass., Nov. 2.—A wild appearing man who was brought into the local court on the charge of being a tramp is believed to be Nathaniel Mosely, the insane man who is wanted for killing Geo. S. Stetson, a Grand Army veteran of Hanselton. He said his home was in Sheffield, that he was 39 years old and the mother of the man he killed was Mrs. Sarah Mosely. He admitted that he had been twice confined in the Northampton insane asylum. The prisoner was held until tomorrow pending investigation. He said he left a man named Spencer in Hartsdale. His mother was at Mr. Spencer's, he said, and he went to call on her at the two weeks ago, and there was trouble with Spencer, who ordered him from the house. He would not answer a question as to whether he knew that Spencer had been shot and killed that day.

Cook County Democrats Home.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The County Democratic committee of New York has decided to close the campaign, but several of the speakers will remain in the state for a few days. Major Gallagher, one of the speakers, called on the Chicago papers and said they told falsehoods about the doings of the Chicago Democrats. As to the results of the election, he said he was sure they would be favorable to Tammany. Assemblyman Hart is from those who predict a victory for Tammany. Another Democrat who visited Chicago is Frank Work, with Charles Dewey Hazen, Thieves and Their Methods. Mr. Work handles Professor Hazen's lectures in New York. He was much pleased with Chicago.

To Reorganize the Naval Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Secretary Long took one of the most important steps of his administration yesterday when he appointed a board to consider and report a plan for the reorganization of the personnel of the naval service. Its sessions will be presided over by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, and its members will be Captains W. T. Sampson, R. D. Evans and A. S. Crowninshield, Lieutenant Commander Richard Wainwright and Lieutenant A. L. Key, representing the line, and Engineer in Chief G. W. McVille, Chief Engineer C. W. Rae and Passed Assistant Engineer W. M. McFarland, representing the engineer corps.

The Shareholders Must Settle.

DENVER, Nov. 2.—Shareholders in the defunct Union National bank received notice from Comptroller Eckels to the effect that in order to pay the debts of the bank it is necessary to enforce the individual liability of the stockholders, as prescribed by the revised statutes. He therefore demands of the stockholders of the bank, payable Nov. 22, $700,000, at the rate of $100 for each share.

Labor Riot at Scottdale, Pa.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., Nov. 2.—Nonunion iron workers here beat a union man named Keltz badly, and the union men vowed vengeance. A riot occurred between the two factions as a result, and in the fray Manager Skimpf of the Scottdale Iron and Steel company was shot in the foot and seriously injured. Henry Gillespie, Joan Jordan and others of the company's workmen were also injured.

JAPANESE APPROVE.

Treaty to Suspend Sealing May Be Signed This Week.

CANADA IS STILL AN IMPEDIMENT.

The Continued Absence of Mr. Macoun, the Expert From the Dominion, Is In Washington Considered a Diplomatic Discourtesy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—It is expected that a treaty or convention between the United States, Russia and Japan will be formally signed and executed at the state department this week carrying out the proposition before the Bering sea conference for a suspension of pelagic sealing, after which the conference will adjourn.

No doubt existed as to the acceptance by the Russian authorities, and it can now be stated positively that the Japanese government has approved the proposition and that the Japanese delegates are prepared to sign the treaty. It suspends pelagic sealing for such a period as will permit the seal herd to revive.

The period of this suspension is not disclosed. One report is that it will be for one year, subject to extension. Another is that it will cover a term of years.

The attitude which Great Britain will assume toward the proposition, and the treaty which is to take its place, is awaited with much interest. Thus far the British authorities have not been informed as to what the conference proposes doing. At the same time the British expert, Professor d'Arcy Thompson, has had several long talks with ex-Secretary Foster and Mr. Hamlin, and these have been of such a satisfactory nature that it was believed an amicable understanding would be reached by all parties concerned if Canada showed a disposition to assent to the agreement.

But Canada still stands in the way and the continued absence of the Canadian expert, Mr. Macoun, is regarded in the light of a diplomatic discourtesy not only to the United States but also to the British government. The foreign office named him, with Professor Thompson, as an expert to come to Washington. Professor Thompson came at once, but Mr. Macoun has remained away.

The Ottawa government has sent no explanation of this action and apparently was oblivious to all inquiries. It is thought the presence of Mr. Hamlin as the American expert in the British-American meeting may be the cause of Canada's inaction. Lord Salisbury specially stated in accepting the proposition for a meeting that it was to be one between experts.

To this end the British expert Thompson and the Canadian expert Macoun were named, it being expected that the United States would name its expert, Professor Jordan. Mr. Hamlin was named, however, and it is understood that this was rather in the light of naming a counselor or diplomat as the United States representative rather than an expert. While no official objection has been made to the appointment it is believed to account in part for Canada's delay in sending her expert to Washington.

No mention is made in the convention of the killing of seals in case Great Britain and Canada do not co-operate. It is pointed out that Russia and Japan could not adopt retaliatory steps against Canada, as they have no border interests with her. Any action against Canada, therefore, must be taken by the United States alone. The plan of killing the seals has been embodied in bills now before congress, but it has not come before the conference as a step now to be taken by the allied powers.

Mr. Foster gave a reception last night to the Russian, Japanese and British delegates and experts. Professor Thompson was present, but the British embassy officials were not represented, owing to the month of mourning imposed by the death of the Duchess of Teck.

Postmaster Turns Thief and Is Killed.

RICHMOND, Nov. 2.—At Newbern, Pulaski county, guards stationed to watch a grain storage house saw a man coming out of it with a bag of wheat on his back. Upon being challenged he dropped the bag, and they, thinking he was going to shoot, fired and killed him. He proved to be John Teagles, the newly appointed postmaster of Newbern.

Steamers In Collision.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The British steamer North Sands, at Hamburg from Galveston, and the British steamer Ardamult, inward bound, came in collision. The latter had a hole stove in her bow above the water line and her rudder damaged. The damage, if any, to the North Sands is unkown.

ELECTIONS NOW ON.

Many Issues Involved In Today's Struggles.

CONTESTS IN FOURTEEN STATES.

The Results Will Be Regarded In Many Instances as Showing the Drift of the National Sentiment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Today elections are being held in 14 states, in addition to the great contest for the mayoralty of Greater New York. In some of the states governors and other state officers will be chosen, and in others there will merely be elected members of the legislatures.

The outcome of the elections in the 14 states will be watched with eager interest, and the results will be regarded as indications of the national sentiment wherever the issues have been clearly drawn, as they have in some of the states.

The states in which elections are being held and the offices to be filled by them are as follows:

New York.—Chief justice of the court of appeals and assemblymen are to be elected. There are four tickets which include a nomination for the judgeship, the Republican, the Tammany Hall Democratic, indorsed by the National Democrats; the Prohibitionist and the Socialist. All these parties and the Citizens' union as well have candidates for the assembly.

Ohio.—Governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, state treasurer, a member of the board of public works and a school commissioner are to be elected for two years. A judge of the supreme court is to be elected, and also a legislature which is to choose a United States senator. Eight tickets are in the field—Republican, silver Democratic (indorsed by silver Republicans), National Democratic, Prohibitionist, Liberty party (silver and woman suffrage combinationists), Populists, Socialists and Negro Protective.

Colorado.—One officer only is to be chosen a justice of the supreme court. Two tickets are in the field—Republican and Populist. The silver Democrats accepted the Populist candidate after their candidate had withdrawn, and the silver Republicans nominated the regular Republican candidate.

Delaware.—Only assemblymen from the northern section of the state are to be elected.

Iowa.—Governor, lieutenant governor, supreme court judge, railroad commissioners and superintendent of public instruction are to be elected for two years, and a house of representatives and a part of the state senate are to be elected. There are two tickets, the Republican and the National Democratic. The National Democratic party is composed of a triple alliance of silver Democrats, silver Republicans and Populists and of bolters of the middle of the road Populists.

Kentucky.—The clerk of the court of appeals is the only officer to be elected. There are three tickets, Republican, National Democratic and silver Democratic.

Maryland.—A comptroller, a clerk of the court of appeals and the members of the legislature are to be elected, and a constitutional amendment in favor of civil service reform will be submitted to a vote of the people. There are four tickets, Republican, silver Democratic, Socialist Labor and independent Republican.

Massachusetts.—Governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, state treasurer, auditor and members of the legislature will be elected for one year. There are four tickets—Republican, silver Democratic, National Democratic and Prohibition.

Nevada.—Only members of the legislature are to be chosen.

New Jersey.—Only members of the assembly and one-third of the senate are to be chosen.

Nebraska.—A supreme court judge and regents of the State university are to be chosen. The tickets in the field are Republican, National Democratic (silver) and silver Republican.

Pennsylvania.—A state treasurer and an auditor general are to be elected, also members of the legislature from the northern part of the state. Tickets have been put up by the Republicans, the silver Democrats, the Independent Republicans (anti-Quays), the Populists, the Prohibitionists and the Liberty party.

Virginia.—A governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, treasurer and members of the legislature are to be elected for four years. A house of delegates and one-half of the senate are to be elected for two years. The contest is said to be between Democratic factions, the silver Democratic Republican and Republican.

Washington.—One-half of the legislature are to be elected.

THE CREEK FRAUDS.

Evidence Discovered Showing a Conspiracy Within the Tribe.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Special Agent Zeverly of the interior department, whose sensational discovery of $90,000 worth of fraudulent Creek Indian warrants was announced last week, has reached here. He had a conference with Acting Secretary of the Interior Ryan and made a verbal report of his investigation.

This was confirmatory of the published statement showing that that amount of fraudulent warrants on the St. Louis subtreasury had been issued, but that the government would lose nothing by the transaction. The losers are outside parties, who purchased the warrants on speculation.

One of the discounters, acting in good faith, bought $50,000 worth of these warrants, paying 92 cents on the dollar. The remaining $40,000 is understood to be confined to a few parties. The United States district attorney has the case in his hands now, and it is probable that indictments will soon follow. The investigation developed the existence of a conspiracy within and about the tribe to float these warrants. A number of the most prominent officials in the tribe are charged with the offense.

MAY DEFY THE CHURCH.

The Princeton Inn Question Approaching a Climax.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 2.—The discussion over the Princeton inn, the consequent condemnation of Princeton university and several of its professors by various presbyteries and synods throughout the country and the action taken by Rev. C. H. Shields in announcing that he would sever his connection with the Presbyterian church have caused a breach between the university and the church which is now believed to be rapidly approaching an open rupture.

On Thursday, Nov. 11, the New Brunswick synod of the Presbyterian church will convene in the First church here. A resolution will be introduced condemning Professor Shields for signing the petition for a liquor license for the Princeton inn, which will be followed by Professor Shields' resignation as a minister of the church.

President Patton, who will be present, is then expected to speak in defense of Professor Shields and the gauntlet may be thrown to the church by the university.

UNION PACIFIC SOLD.

The Reorganization Committee Secures the Railway For $57,564,932.76.

OMAHA, Nov. 2.—The Union Pacific railroad was sold to the reorganization committee for $58,053,284.87 for railroad property and $1,615,270.09 for bonds.

This total of $57,564,932.76 does not include the sinking fund in the hands of the government, and taking this to be $4,036,600 the amount stated in the government decree covering the sale of the road, the total bids for the property was $71,564,932.76.

There were no other bidders, and the road went to the reorganization committee without opposition.

The members of the reorganization committee said they attached no importance to the request of Coates & Son of London and declared that nothing but an injunction could stop the sale.

Everything is on a complete scale and delivery and return of books worked satisfactorily. About 250,000 volumes are now on the shelves of the library, many of the books not having as yet been removed from the capitol building.

LOVE FOUND A WAY.

Romantic Elopement From a Long Island Town.

CLAUDIO WAS DETERMINED TO MARRY

Despite the Opposition of His Father and the Watchfulness of a Spying Brother, He Managed to Achieve His Aims.

GREENPORT, N. Y., Nov. 2.—William E. Claudio, 21 years old, a medical student, living in this place, wished to get married. His sweetheart was Miss E. Louise Worth, 21 years old, of Southold, tall and fair. They met at a firemen's tournament in Riverhead last year. They agreed that life was worth living when they were near each other.

But Claudio's father, who keeps a hotel in that village, thought otherwise. He was anxious that his son should complete his studies, so a watch was put on the young man to see that he made no surreptitious visits to Southold.

That young Claudio was equal to the emergency was later demonstrated. He asked his father for funds to make a trip to New London, Conn., on business. With the money in his pocket and under the surveillance of his elder brother Claudio started for the steamboat Manhasset, that was to take him to his pretended destination.

He was seen safely aboard the boat, and then the elder brother sat down on the pier to see that the boat with his brother aboard got safely away. This is where the younger Claudio displayed a little strategy. By prearrangement a sharpie drew cautiously under the stern of the steamboat out of sight of the wharf. A form dangled over the side of the steamboat and dropped into the sharpie. It was young Claudio.

He was quickly rowed away unnoticed. Finding his way to a livery stable, he hired a closed hack to drive to Southold, while from his point of observation on the dock the elder brother waved the departing steamer a farewell.

At Southold, Claudio was joined by his sweetheart, and they drove to Cutchogue, where the Rev. F. G. Beebe of the Presbyterian church tied the knot. They left next day for Brooklyn. By this time the Claudio family have learned that they were outwitted.

Durrant's Case Again.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Attorney General Fitzgerald of California submitted a motion to dismiss or affirm in the case of W. H. Durrant. This case is an appeal from the decision of the California circuit court refusing a writ of habeas corpus. It involves the proceeding against Durrant for murder. Mr. Fitzgerald also moved to advance on the docket the cases of Benjamin L. Hill and George J. Crossley, petitioner for Alvah D. Worden, and to dismiss the case of Harvey Allendar. These are all murder cases from the state of California which have been appealed to the supreme court. Worden is charged with being a party to the murder of a United States soldier in assisting to ditch a train during the strike of 1895 which resulted in the soldier's death. All the cases were taken under advisement.

Hatcher, curator of paleontology of Princeton university, will conduct the researches along the coast of South America from the Terra del Fuego archipelago to southern Patagonia. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Chief Civil Engineer A. G. Menocal has received leave of absence from the navy yard and has explored to duty in connection with the Nicaragua canal commission, of which Rear Admiral Walker is at the head. Mr. Menocal expects to leave the yard on Nov. 17 and will be away about six weeks. The selection is regarded as entirely fitting, for Mr. Menocal has been chief engineer of the canal from its inception and it is on the plans made by him in 1872 and 1891 that the present commission reports.

PALESTINE AND THE JEWS.

Why the Modern Scheme Is Surely a Fraud.

Palestine is at present as Matthew Arnold has said a land of "sand and sand stone, and crumbling walls and salty sand," but the restoration to doubt that culture and irrigation would restore its fertility and that it was but once again overflow with milk and honey if only the means were found whereby the work of reclamation could be begun on a large scale London Spectator The Chaldean tablets show that five thousand years ago the prices of the land in the Euphrates valley were twice as high as the present prices of the land in the United States and the wealth

It has been objected that the Jews are totally unfitted by their habits to work with their hands that they are averse to engage in agriculture and that they would not be willing to cultivate the land, but this objection has no foundation, as the Jews in Europe and in the United States are now engaged in all the various occupations of life, and in the countries of Europe they are to be found in the rural districts as well as in the towns and cities. Many of the Jews in Russia and Roumania are engaged in agriculture, and in the United States they have shown a decided preference for agricultural pursuits when they have had the opportunity to engage in them. Besides, the Jews would not be required to cultivate the land themselves, but could lease it to the Arabs, who are now in possession of it, and who are the only people in which they might find a market for their products. One more fact in connection with the poverty and desolation of Palestine is that for the Jews and for the Arabs it is certain that the land will do nothing with Palestine, it seems quite certain that European rivalries will prevent any one European country from colonizing it, why may not the true solution be found in Jewish colonization? The idea is attractive and perfectly feasible

THE AMEER OF AFGHANISTAN.

An Autocratic Ruler Who Is Governed by the Will of His People.

The ameer of Afghanistan, who was at first suspected of complicity with the Indian border troubles but whose innocence is now well established is one of the most autocratic monarchs in the world Not the czar of Russia nor the sultan of Turkey is more absolute in authority says the New York Tribune Yet he is of a peculiarly conscientiously subject to the will of the people in some respects A few years ago he greatly desired to visit England and other European countries and the British government was anxious that he should do so but he did not venture to do so without the consent of his people So he took a plebiscitum on the subject He sent a proclamation to every village in his empire telling what he wanted to do and explaining the advantages that would accrue to him and to the empire from such a tour, and asking the people to take a vote on the subject and let him know the result So the subject was submitted to universal suffrage After a few weeks the returns were all in and were counted and it was found that a considerable majority of the people were opposed to his leaving the country He was disappointed but acquiesced in the will of the people and stayed at home sending his son and son to England in his place

SWELLINGS FROM BLOWS

Nature Causes Them to Appear to Protect Spot from Further Injury.

The swelling which follows from a blow is nature's effort to protect the part from further injury and to keep it at rest while repair is going on What actually takes place at the seat of injury is not even now quite understood The injury to the smaller blood vessels interferes with the flow of blood through them and the white corpuscles with part of the serum, the watering part of the blood, escapes into the surrounding tissues At the same time the blood vessels in the neighborhood have had the increased flow of blood which has brought fresh obstructed increases the swelling It is probable that the white corpuscles of the blood pass out to all tissues to assist in the repair as far as this is essential at the injury to the tissue but which is of interference with the substance of the corpuscles is such that it is converted into the tissue of the part and becomes part of the new tissue which is formed and the swelling thus disappears in the course of a few days

MADE ENTIRELY OF BRICKS

The Stone Used in Constructing Peter the Great's Winter Palace.

Very few people know that the old Winter palace of the czars of Russia on the Neva river is built entirely of brick but it is a fact, for it has been proved by the carefully made excavations that have been made in the foundations, that except no stone was used. In all the 1,500 or 1,600 acres in the building they say the Washington Star Government stone was used in the foundations with bricks that no other architect had ever attempted to not only used bricks exclusively for the building but he used them in columns, the stairs throughout the palace. In the matter of the bricks themselves, bricks have often been used for cement but he stipulated always that they should be of stone. In the pedestals for both raised and stepped brick was ordered, and in the construction of the first part of the building, the sweeping staircase in the church of Peter and Paul

A KING'S GIFT.

Wedding Present of George III. in a Boston Museum.

Studded with hundreds of diamonds great and small, lies in a glass case in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts the wedding gift of George III of England to his bride, Queen Charlotte, sixty-six Globe Very recently this superb addition to the treasures of the museum has been procured through the death of the lady in whose title possession it was invested

This most costly and historically interesting gift is a double wreath with belt clasp bird and pendants all of the most pure gold and thickly incrusted with gems It was presented by King George to his queen on their marriage in 1761 and by her was worn, no doubt, in her days of grand social function of state ceremonial

The ornamentation of the wedding gift consists of the crisp, which is in the shape of a single center stone of oval or pistil shape, the color of which is brown, resting upon a cushion, the whole studded with diamonds On the band below the clasp, on a similar background, are diamonds enwrought also in diamonds, the royal sceptre surmounted by its cross and the rod of equity, tipped with the dove The two rods are crossed and are united at the point of juncture by a delicate cluster of diamonds Upon the watch itself, gems, appears upon a background of blue the monogram "C R," surrounded by a crown, also wrought in precious stones

Spanish and French Swordswomen

Spanish and French women of the higher class consider it expert swordsmanship. They are taught to fence as a regular and constant exercise and there are regular schools for women to learn the art. Every woman of the aristocracy is taught how to fence but to what extent they practice it is not known. It is said that the women of Spain are more skilled in the use of the sword than those of France.

BRINGING UP CHILDREN.

Love and Confidence Are the First Principles.

"My dear mother has curious ideas about children," said an ideal young mother not long ago. "She is always talking about 'the good old-fashioned way' of bringing them up, though certainly she must know that it drove the sons away from their parents, and made the daughters remember the old home as though it were a reformatory. John and I were both too sternly treated when we were children, a generation later; in fact, his father was so cruel that he cannot bear to remember his youth and its trials. So we determined to take other plans with our children. First of all, to make their early home so happy that they will always remember it as the dearest place on earth, and to win their love and confidence and to make them sure of ours. The idea of standing on dignity with one's own babies—the idea of their being afraid to say anything they wish to say to us, and to utter little cries of pleasure, to chatter and laugh over their meals, to join in the conversation when a bright idea strikes them. I do not need to be harsh. That mother doesn't like it is enough."

There is every distinction between repression and suppression; that is, parents should repress their children, but not suppress them. Theirs is the time of life into which neither care nor trouble nor shame nor fear of criticism should enter. Fair and kindly treatment will give them, as they grow older, a joyous and aggressive confidence that will help them through many difficulties that would otherwise appall them. Moreover, it is as wrong to tell a child of its faults before visitors as it would be to tell one's husband or one's wife. If there is anything to talk over, do it in the nursery when outsiders are away. "As for their papa," added this model woman, "he does as I desire him to do, being away at business so much, and comes home to be met with shouts of joy, kissed, petted climbed over; to have his pockets searched for candies and to brighten up the house. As yet I do not tell the baby faults to him; they are all within my own province; and later when the boys become their father's care I am sure they will be kindly, tenderly and wisely advised. They will be their father's companion, as the girls will be mine, and such boys seldom become dissipated or vicious." That happens to those who, having no home love to turn to, seek friends elsewhere, and choose unwisely—those who are brought up in the cold, iron-bound, old-fashioned way.—Boston Budget.

A Bright-Eyed Flower Boy.

A London paper says that some time ago Princess Maud went shopping strictly incog. While she was walking along the street she was accosted by a little street Arab who was the happy possessor of a pair of large, pathetic brown eyes and a tangled crop of curly brown hair. He was busily engaged in the absorbing task of earning his living (and, perhaps, some one else's as well) by retailing "fresh spring flowers, penny and tuppence a bunch." The princess stopped by him, and, while choosing some flowers, she was a little startled by the lad saying, in an excited and familiar whisper: "It's all right, miss. I knows yer." The princess smilingly shook her head in a denial. "Yes, I do knows yer" (more emphatically). "Yes, Princess Maud, I twigged yer direc'ly."—Detroit Free Press.

WAYS OF QUEEN BEES.

When in her prime, the queen lays from 2,000 to 3,000 eggs per day, rarely more.

Queen cells always have the mouth opening downward, while all other cells in the hive are horizontal.

The queen lays eggs, and the workers carry them and put them in the little waxen cups known as "breeding cells."

As soon as a young queen is hatched she makes a tour of the hive, destroying all queen cells and their helpless occupants.

When the weather is fine young queens emerge in 16 days from the date upon which the eggs change into grubs or worms.

If everything is working smoothly, exactly eight days before a young queen is hatched the old queen takes her colony out of the hive.

A BARBAROUS SURGICAL OPERATION

For the Cure of Piles.

Is not only intensely painful, dangerous to life and very expensive, but in the light of modern medical research and since the discovery of the Pyramid Pile Cure a surgical operation is wholly unnecessary. If you have any doubt on this point kindly read the following letters from people who know that our claims regarding the merits of the Pyramid Pile Cure are borne out by the facts.

From N. A. Stall, Ridge Road, Niagara Co., N. Y.: I received your Pyramid Pile Cure and tested it last night. It did me more good than anything I have ever found yet, and remember this was the result of one night's treatment only.

From Penn W. Arnett, Batesville, Ark.: Gentlemen:—Your Pyramid Pile Cure has done me so much good in so short a time that my son-in-law, Capt. T. J. Klein, of Fort Smith, Ark., has written me for your address as he wishes to try it also.

From A. E. Townsend, Benville, Ind.: I have been so much benefitted by the Pyramid Pile Cure that I enclose $1 for which please send a package which I wish to give to a friend of mine who suffers very much from piles.

From John W. Wright, Clinton, DeWitt Co., Ill.: I am so well pleased with the Pyramid Pile Cure that I think it but right to drop you a few lines to inform you its effects have been all that I could ask or wish.

From P. A. Bruton, Llano, Tex.: Gentlemen:—The Pyramid Pile Cure has done so much good for me that I will say for the benefit of others that after using only two days I am better than I have been for months.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Albion, Mich., and it is truly a wonderful remedy for all forms of piles. So great has been the number of testimonial letters received by them from all parts of the country that they have decided to publish each week a number of such letters and never use the same letter twice, but only fresh letters will be published.

All druggists recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure, as they know from what their customers say that no remedy gives such general satisfaction.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they can reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

A Great Surprise is in Store

for those who will go to day and get a package of GRAIN-O. It takes the place of coffee at about one-fourth the cost. It is a food drink, full of health, and can be given to a child as well as the adult with great benefit. It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha or Java coffee. It satisfies everyone. A cup of GRAIN-O is better for the system than a tonic, because its benefit is permanent. What coffee breaks down GRAIN-O builds up. Ask your grocer for GRAIN-O. 15 and 25 cents.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him. W. D. Olney.

J. M. Thurswend, of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he has a spell of indigestion and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? W. D. Olney.

In pursuance and by virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale, rendered in the above entitled action at a Special Term of the Supreme Court held at the Court House in the City of Newburgh, and State of New York, on the 9th day of October, 1897, Hon. RAINY ELECTION DAYS

Many guesses have been made to day, as to the probable effect of the heavy rain on the result of the election. The old saying that a rainy election day is good luck for Democrats has been recalled by many and so far as the State is concerned it probably holds good. The Democratic strength is in the cities and the vote of the cities is not seriously affected by bad weather while the hot fight over Mayor Strong in New York insures a larger vote in New York and Brooklyn, which means a big Democratic majority for Judge Parker. On the other hand the Republican strength is in the rural districts and a heavy storm which keeps many voters at home cuts down the Republican majorities in those counties.

Locally it is not true that a rainy day is a good thing for Democrats. We do not recall any storms election day on which the Democrats ever won a victory in Orange county while some of Democratic greatest triumphs in the county have been achieved under cloudless skies. The explanation of the seeming paradox that meteorological conditions favorable to Democratic success in the State do not hold good in Orange county is to be found in the fact that here the cities and large villages are Republican strongholds while the Democratic hosts are scattered over the hillsides and valleys of the rural towns.

It should, however be said that party zeal or lukewarmness has more effect on the vote than the weather and all reports from Orange county are to the effect that the Republican heart hasn't been fired to any great degree of enthusiasm for the ticket nominated by the Odell machine.

There is however no use in prophesying or guessing when the result will be known.

The campaign in Greater New York was the hottest ever fought in any city in this country. No presidential contest ever threw the city in such a turmoil nor aroused such universal interest. The stakes for which the politicians were playing were great for the patronage of the big city is important in its magnitude. The campaign was a remarkable one in many respects but it will be remembered principally for the amount of lying that was done by the leaders of the parties and the factions. They all started in with the same plan of campaign to claim everything, and the result was an infinite amount of vituperation and ridiculous[illegible]

ELECTION IN NEW YORK.

Very Disagreeable Weather, But a Large Vote Being Polled—Guesses at the Result.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York Nov 2—The day opened with heavy lowering clouds and chilly disagreeable penetrating mist. The rush about the polling places has been unprecedented.

One evening paper announces that reports from all sections of the city indicate that 237,000 ballots were cast during the first three and half hours.

VanWyck cast vote 19 at 6 40 spending thirty seconds in the booth. Low voted about 8 30 occupying one minute five seconds in the preparation of his ballot.

The Silk Stocking 19th Assembly District seemed this noon to be going heavily for Low. In some sections of the district the Republican workers abandoned the polls, and only Citizens Union workers talked positively.

Tammany Democrats at St George this noon, declared that Richmond county would surely give 300 majority for VanWyck. The Georgites there appeared to be going for Low.

In Queens county it was thought, this noon, that it would be close between VanWyck and Low.

ELECTION DAY WEATHER

Rain Falling in Nearly All Parts of the State—A Light Vote Being Polled.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Albany N Y, Nov 2—Weather Observer Simms reports rain in nearly all parts of the State to day. This indicates heavy roads, which will bring the State vote far below the registration.

In the southern tier the rain has amounted almost to a fierce storm. Toward the north, at Watertown there was no rain, but it is cold, and the roads are muddy. Near Buffalo it has rained steadily. At some points along the Hudson the roads are almost impassable. Reports from Albany, Hudson, Kingston, Lyons, Schenectady, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo are to the effect that the voting is rather tardy.

A Quaker Surprises a Confidence Man, Who Retires in Haste

A fine-looking man with gray beard and wearing a large Quaker hat walked serenely down Broadway recently and when near the Astor house he was accosted by a dapper fellow clad in loud striped trousers, says the New York Commercial-Advertiser.

"Why how do you do Uncle Josh Simpson?"

The Quaker beamed placidly upon the man who knew him so well but whose indurated countenance he had never seen before. The confidence man, for such he was, was shaking the hand of the Quaker effusively when the latter with a quiet twinkle in his eyes replied:

"Oh I do not have so many but thee has the number."

The swindler not to be daunted continued: "Let me see I met you some where Uncle Josh but I cannot recall [illegible]"

ON THE TIP OF THE TONGUE.

Mayor Berry has been a very sick man. He has tossed restlessly in bed for two weeks or longer, but never once has his interest in his public duty flagged. He wants to retire from office feeling satisfied that he has done the best he could under very trying circumstances, and hoping that the honest people of the city will give him at least what credit for his efforts.

"Billy" Adams is the busiest man necessary an adjunct of a wedding or a ball as he is music. He handles the carriages and he has that business down pat. No one gets his carriage ahead of its turn, and "Billy" knows where each driver is when he is wanted. Polite and gentlemanly at all times, prompt. Like him, and that's why he is always secured.

Of course everybody is glad that the columns of this and other papers in the county are to be free from the political matter which has been served up for the past fortnight and that various subjects will again be presented for readers. The politicians who have read and dissected every line are on hand. They, too, are expecting a relief over all this the day after election, and preparation has been made. With the coming of the vote to-night, and the official count of the result—be what it may,—the sorrow the newspaper workers will also join the readers who are glad of the change to follow. Political news, article and gossip are as necessary as the ballots and the reader who keeps posted politically is not apt to be deficient in knowledge on the other topics of the day which go to make up the journalities.

The Argus will have election returns, to-night, from every district in Orange county, and at as early an hour as telegraph, telephone and horses can deliver them, once the votes are counted. There will be no red search-light toward Port Jervis to show Democratic success, nor toward Newburgh to indicate Republican victory; but on a canvas suspended on the east wall of the Elberton Hotel will be thrown the returns from State, county and city, from the Argus editorial rooms, regardless of who may be pleased or who disappointed by the story the figures will tell. You can see them, and cheer or hiss as the spirit moves you, but everybody will please be as good-natured as he can.

J. M. Timmswend, of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he has a spell of indigestion and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two or DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? W. D. Olney.

THE ELECTION.

Passing Off Quietly in This City—Republican Money Plenty and Freely Used—The Range of Prices—A Guess at the Result—Reports from Other Places.

The election in this city has passed off very quietly. Voting was slow during the morning, but voters flocked to the polls in large numbers during the noon hour, and this afternoon the voting has been brisk at nearly all the polls.

Reports from the different polling places at 3 o'clock indicate that about the usual percentage of the registered vote will be polled.

Republican workers have been well supplied with money and they have used it in buying votes with but little attempt at concealment. In the Fourth Ward the price has been $2, while in the Third Ward but $1 has been paid,—a discrimination against Third Ward mercenaries that they were disposed to resent and at 2:30 o'clock half-a-dozen disgusted looking Afro-Americans were lined up by the Methodist Church declaring that if the price wasn't raised they would'nt vote.

Republican money was used in all the districts, but nowhere so openly as in the First District of the Fourth Ward, where the driveway to the Holding House yard was used as a mart in which black and white niggers were sold.

There are reasons for believing that in a goodly number of cases the offered money was taken while the person receiving it voted as his inclination dictated.

If the length of time spent by voters in the booths is any index of the way the vote is going, a great deal of cutting and carving has been done. Those who have spent the day at the polls say that it has been a noticeable fact that Republicans have wrestled with their ballots much longer than have Democrats.

MAYOR BERRY VOTES.

The storm could not keep Mayor Berry from the polls. He rose from his sick bed, entered a carriage and was driven to his polling place in Monhagen's engine house, when he voted just before 12 o'clock. It took the Mayor some little time to prepare his ballot, but it's dollars to doughnuts that when the job was done the ballot was marked in a way calculated to give Republican machine managers heart failure.

An amusing incident of the day in one of the First Ward districts was the audible soliloquy of a voter as he prepared his ballot. He reviled and upbraided some of the candidates, and called on all the gods at once to pour out their wrath on others, while he cooed out words of approval for the men who found favor in his eyes, and for whom he intended to vote.

How is it going? We'll tell you, to-morrow, but it looks on the surface as if the sovereign people had hit the Middletown Republican machine in the region of the solar plexus.

IN OTHER PLACES.

A Republican who isn't traveling, this year, under the banner of "Floyd Gardner's brains and Horace Thompson's money" telephoned the Argus at 2 o'clock, this afternoon, that it all the town of Wallkill was going as was the Mechanicstown district the Gardner-Thompson combination would be beaten by 200 votes.

Advices from Port Jervis are to the effect that a full vote is being polled. Republican money is being freely used, but in spite of all efforts of workers in his behalf Dave Bogart is being badly cut.

In Goshen, money is being freely used but the Democrats are making a good fight and hope to make a good showing when the votes are counted.

PRIVATE ELECTRIC PLANT.

The Howell-Hinchman Co. Will Light Their Tannery by Their Own Plant.

A carload of machinery was received in this city, to-day, for the Howell-Hinchman Co. and constitutes the new electric light plant which they are to erect at their tannery.

The plant will cover two sections of 800 nights each. It will be erected as soon as possible.

Fell Into the Canal.

While riding his bicycle on the towpath near Sparrowbush, Sunday, "Hogs" Wood, of Port Jervis, came to a bad spot, and with his wheel was tumbled into the canal. Joseph Straussse, who was with him hauled him out with a garden rake that he borrowed of a colored man who was passing.

Water Rents Are Due.

Water rents are now due and payable and will be received by S. Wood, acting clerk, at the office of the Water Board in the Lipsett building until Dec. 1st, except holidays. The office will also be open Tuesday and Friday evenings for the accommodation of those engaged during the day.

The roadbed on Franklin street fell caved in again, Monday night, and the Madison House busman had a narrow escape from being thrown from his seat in passing. The police lighted the spot on being notified.

THE BUSY UNION HAT COMPANY

Moving Into Its New Addition, and Turning Out Hats as Fast as Possible at the Same Time.

The Union Hat Company is working under difficulties now, just when the orders are coming in faster than in a long time. About 170 hands are doing their utmost to keep somewhere near the orders.

An Argus reporter was shown through the plant, Monday afternoon, and marvelled at the work in preparation, and the system which turns out perfect hats from a bundle of straw. The new addition has just been completed, and the work of removing part of the machinery into the addition is going on steadily, and without retarding the work of the factory.

The fertility of resources of the secretary and treasurer of the Union Hat Company, H. C. Benson, is shown in the arrangements which have been made to this end. Steam has been piped from the Traction Company's engine room 250 feet to the hat factory, and a portable engine is being rigged up in the yard to supply power for the paint during the removal of the engine and boiler.

The new dry rooms are all fitted with lingeless, self-closing doors so that no heat escapes when the boys go to and fro with racks of hats.

The plant when completed as outlined will be one of the best equipped hat factories in the country and that it is a great benefit to Middletown is evidenced by the fact that 350 hands are employed.

Port Jervis Presbyterian Church Improvements.

The Presbyterian Church of Port Jervis, which has been undergoing alterations and improvements was reopened, Sunday, with appropriate services. The church has been modernized and greatly beautified and its interiors now one of the finest in Port Jervis.

Business Change.

Stephen Moore has purchased John A. Lovely's bakery business and took possession of the same, this morning.

Catarrh Is a Disease

Which requires a constitutional remedy. It cannot be cured by local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla is wonderfully successful in curing catarrh, because it eradicates from the blood the scrofulous taints which cause it. Sufferers with catarrh find a cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other remedies utterly fail.

HORSE MEAT IN BELGIUM

Enormous Quantities of It Are Eaten with No Bad Effects.

Official figures having been recently quoted to show that the number of horses imported last year from Holland reached 22,000 instead of 6,000, as stated in the Belgian Chamber, I visited Antwerp with the object of finding out approximately what proportion of this enormous total is actually slaughtered for human consumption.

From information placed at my disposal by the director of the city abattoirs, it appears that the bulk of the animals arriving from England find their way direct to the slaughter house. Although the greater part comes from London, the trade is by no means confined to this quarter, the imports in last week's official list showing that no less than 70 were brought from Hull and Newcastle. One dealer in Antwerp alone (an Englishman), disposed of upward of 3,000 horses last year to the local butchers.

On the other hand, it is positively denied, as far as Antwerp is concerned, that any of the meat finds its way back to England, either in the form of "tinned beef" or soup. Not a single meat preserving establishment exists in the city. My informant, who is a stanch adherent of horseflesh as a "wholesome and nutritious diet" for the working man, confirmed the measures about to be taken for guarding against tuberculosis and glanders. A further experiment is to be tried at Rotterdam by subjecting all "suspicious" meat to treatment in steam chambers heated to 110 degrees centigrade (a temperature which has been scientifically proved sufficient to kill the bacillus), and to sell the meat so steamed at prices ranging from 1f 50 cents per kilo (about 6d per pound). The residue of the broth included.

There are in Antwerp about 20 shops devoted entirely to the sale of horseflesh. I visited several of these establishments; but, with the thermometer at 80 degrees in the shade, the meat, of which the bulk had been slaughtered at least two days previously, did not present an appearance which was calculated to make converts. Still less so were the sausages of dusky hue which appear to form the staple delicacy when the meat is unfitted for sale in its natural state. The prices run from 1½d per pound for "prime cuts" to about 2d for "scraps." When it is remembered that, apart from the government ban laid upon imported horseflesh, there is in Belgium a duty of nearly three-fourths pence per pound on all other imported meat, it is easy to understand why Australian mutton is yet practically unknown here, and why among the poorer classes horse is the only flesh food available.—Brussels Cor. London Chronicle.

Japan within five months of taking possession of Formosa, has built two lines of Decauville railroads, one 27 miles, the other 30 miles long.

The Hudson River railroad was built between 1849 and 1851, and was opened for business between New York city and East Albany on October 1 of the latter year.

Senator Hill, of New York, does not ride the bicycle, but has a good opinion of the sport. He says women should ride when they want to and wear bloomers if they elect to do so.

The great clock at Rouen has been measuring time and striking the hours and quarters for over 500 years and, it is said, has been running all this time without interruption.

With the completion of the Trans-Siberian railway in 1900, the tour of the world in 40 days will become an accomplished fact. The cost of the trip is calculated to be from $250 to $300.

To counteract the British agitation against Egypt, the German government is about to introduce a railroad bill to construct the Euphrates valley railroad, providing for the 1,577 kilometres long route Bares Sakieh and Bagamoyo to Tabora to Uschirombo, branching out there into two lines, one to Ujiji on Lake Tanganyika, the other to Victoria Nyanza.

THE DENTISTS.

The famous Mastrial, who lived in the first century, B. C., speaks of a Roman dentist, Calcellius, as "in the habit of listening as well as extracting teeth."

The ancient Greeks used false teeth of sycamore wood, fastened to the adjacent sound teeth by ligatures of silver or gold in like manner to the bridge work of to-day.

Filled teeth, crown and bridge work were found in various parts of Italy, Greece and Egypt, with ancient instruments, were shown in large numbers at the Columbian exposition.

Under the Mosaic regime the law an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, was rigidly enforced, and the lord high executioner numbered the forceps among his official instruments.

Women detectives or "spotters" with decayed teeth were several years ago employed in New York to make cases against tooth-drawing barbers, who were practising dentistry against the law.

A New York dentist who puts gold fringes to the molars of the Four Hundred, follows his wealthy clientele to Newport during the season, where he opens parlors and is prepared to fill or extract teeth while his patrons wait.

Electricity in motor form has robbed teeth filling of much of its former terror. The work is done in one-fourth the time. The mallet, driven at a high rate of speed, is comparatively painless, when compared to the old hand or foot treadle process.

If Samson's digestion had been out of order, and his blood impure, there would probably have been a different story to tell about the lion. Men, nowadays, do not ordinarily have to wrestle with lions. But there are business problems to struggle with and business difficulties to overcome, that are calculated to test their strength and endurance fully as much, if not more, than the lion did Samson's. A man to be successful must be in good physical condition. This is as true of the man who works with his mind as of the man who works with his muscles.

The man whose brain is poisoned with impure blood will suffer from headaches and be listless and lacking in energy, unfit for business, unfit for pleasure. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery stimulates the digestive organs, invigorates the liver, soothes and strengthens the nerves and fills the arteries with the rich, red, pure blood of health. It restores waning energies. It builds up strength. It makes sound, healthy flesh. It should be taken by every man or woman who is weak, sick, run-down, emaciated, bloodless, nerveless, miserable. Druggists sell it.

Miss Julia Ellis of Fifth McLean Co., Ky., writes: "After suffering for a long while with a lingering disease, I was advised to try Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I took four bottles of the 'Prescription,' and three of the 'Discovery' and found relief. Life is now no longer a burden to me. I weigh one hundred and twenty pounds. A year ago I weighed 92 pounds. It has been sometime since I discontinued the medicine. I shall praise it wherever I go. I feel better than ever before. My health was very much impaired, and I feel that I owe a great deal to your wonderful medicine. I truly believe it saved my life. I thank you for the advice which you so kindly gave me while taking your medicine."

'Tis Better to Laugh.

The sunniest skies are the fairest,
The happiest hours are best;
Of all of life's blessings the rarest
Are fullest of pleasure and rest.
Though Fate is our purpose denying,
Let each bear his part like a man,
Nor darken the world with foresighing—
'Tis better to laugh if we can.

Each heart has its burden of sorrow,
Each soul has its shadows of doubt;
'Tis sunshine we're yearning to borrow
From those who may gather about.
Then let us wear faces of pleasure,
The world will be happy to scan,
And add to the joys we may treasure—
'Tis better to laugh if we can.
—Nixon Waterman, in L. A. W. Bulletin.

Arcadie.

I traveled many winding ways
That weary seemed to me,
In cloudy nights and windy days,
To find sweet Arcadie.

The shepherds stand on either hand:
"We fain would go with thee,
Save for our sheep, to that sweet land,
That far-off Arcadie."

Along the selfsame way I fare,
And shepherds ask of me:
"Hast found those green fields anywhere?"
"Yea; but the people dwelling there Know not 't is Arcadie."
—Arthur Willis Colton, in Century.

Captured.

"Oh, cruel captor of my heart,
I pray thee set it free!
You'll never miss it from your store,
And I have none—poor me!"

"I really cannot spare it, sir,"
She said, with smile divine;
"But if you needs must have a heart,
I'd rather give you mine!"
—George Hyde, in Peterson's Magazine.

THE ITCH TO BE SEEN.

Some People Are Always Out on Parade.

It is a strange fancy which seizes some people whose highest delight seems to be reached when they can live their lives in full sight of the world. In whatever they do they are literally possessed with the itch to be seen; to be conspicuous. If they travel, it must be in the most evident manner. If they go to the country, only the most crowded places will answer. If they go to the theater, the very acme of their happiness is attained when they sit in a box. If they drive, it is invariably in the showiest turnout. If they affect the bicycle, either in their dress or in the ornamentation of their machine they must be unlike other people. If they promenade, it must be along the most prominent thoroughfares. When they affect dress, it is invariably to overdress. They must have the most conspicuous table in the hotel dining-room; the best things on the bill-of-fare are never good enough; they must always have extras. They must do something that they may be singled out from other people. They must be in evidence, or they are not happy, and, oddly enough, too, the people of these predilections are never the ones who try to impress others with the idea that they belong to an exalted station in life, whereas their very actions never fail to place them where they really do belong. Their exact measure is easily taken. It is hard for such people to accept the fact that the quietest conduct is ever associated with true worth or genuine gentility. It is only the vulgar class which places itself in the face of the public. A quiet dress, a retiring manner, a withholding of opinion: these are the true marks of the well-bred woman. But quietness does not suit the woman who wishes to make herself conspicuous. The woman who places herself in the public gaze must realize that she is being looked at, must act well and be the very people to see goodly of "on the courts. Well-bred women are like the choicest flowers—they grow in the best places. The violet never obtrudes. The lily of the valley seeks the deepest shade. And who will say that these are not among the sweetest of flowers. Nature is a wonderful worker when we get her right. She is a success in fact as well. The trouble is we do not heed them. If we did we would be wiser. We would quickly learn that the showiest flowers are not always the most fragrant. Nature's most delicate handiwork she reserves for the woods; not for the showy garden of the millionaire. Her most beautiful effects of shade and color she works out in the deepest forests. Nature has not the itch to be seen, and it would be well if some of our women were more like her. If they were, they would themselves be very much happier—and so would a great many other people.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Wise Girl.

"I shall certainly marry a wealthy man if I can get one," she said, with determination. "I prize the comforts and pleasures that wealth can give above all else."

"That being the case," returned the poor suitor bitterly, "may I ask which you would take if you had your choice between a plumber and an iceman?"

"That would depend entirely upon the season of the year," she replied after a moment of deep thought.—Chicago Post.

CHESS AND ITS DEVOTEES.

The name of chess is supposed by some philologists to have been derived from shah, the Persian name for king.

Napoleon was fond of chess, but did not like to take the time it required. He said: "It is too slow for a busy man."

Charlemagne was a noted chess player. He said that "a game of chess cleared his mind for the planning of a campaign."

Frederick the Great was a chess player as well as a flute player, and gave almost as much attention to the former as to the latter.

Voltaire, the artist, was fond of chess, and in his study at Fernow invariably challenged visitors to a bout with the chess board.

Haroun al Raschid, the jovial monarch of the "Arabian Nights," was a devotee of chess, and, it is said, could beat any player in Bagdad.

The first book printed in Great Britain was "The Game and Playe of Chesse" translated and printed at Westminster by William Caxton in 1474.—Globe-Democrat.

A HELPING HAND.

The greatest help is health. A poor man with health is a thousand times better off than a sick man with a million dollars.

Nearly everybody could be healthy if they only knew it. Suffering can usually be traced to either ignorance or doubt. Some sufferers are ignorant of the proper remedy. Others have tried so many medicines that they doubt the efficacy of them all.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy

is a helping hand that is held out to the sick. It does more than help—it cures. It cures liver complaints, constipation, scrofula, rheumatism, erysipelas, and all kidney, bladder and urinary diseases.

Mr. E. C. Caswell, of Brockport, N. Y., was terribly afflicted with scrofula. He had no hope of cure. But Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy gave him great benefit, and he recommends it to other scrofulous sufferers.

Don't give up because other remedies fail. Remember this is the grandest remedy anybody ever made.

Christien, the Murderer, in Half-a-Dozen Places at Once—The Butter Market—Cooks Falls' Era of Prosperity—Why Blue Stone is in Demand.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Sheriff Watson informed me that judging from the letters he received for the next two weeks after the shooting at the Sullivan County Club Christien was in at least half-a-dozen places at once.

—Butter is nearly all out of the farmers' hands, and it looks now as if present prices would be maintained or even go higher.

—Cooks Falls, Delaware county, is just now entering upon an era of prosperity, the like of which it never saw before. To begin with, the O. and W. people have cleaned up about the station, and otherwise added to the beauty of the surroundings, so as to make it inviting to the city boarder. Then Leighton, the acid king, will make this his headquarters, and to that end is putting up a fine large store, which will attract trade from miles in all directions. It is safe to predict that the population of that village will double in the next five years.

—The stone business along the O. and W. has been brisk for the past three months. Greater New York has much to do with this, as those cities and small towns that will soon become a part of the compact have been making and mending their walks, and running in debt for the improvements, and then the city as a whole will be compelled to foot the bill. This and nothing more has made a demand for four-foot flagging at fair living prices, and the stonemen are in consequence contented and happy.

FOR THE CAUSE OF CHRIST

NO LOSS OF INTEREST IN EVANGELIST GEIL'S MEETINGS.

Bad Weather Kept Some at Home, Last Night, But the Meeting Was Interesting and Useful—Need of an Up-to-Date Religious Experience—The Lesson of John's Life—Announcements.

The attendance on last night's meeting, owing to the disagreeable weather, was somewhat smaller than at Evangelist Geil's former meetings. Those who did attend were treated to a sermon that was intended for christians and advocated an up-to-date religious experience. That they appreciated the remarks was evinced by the small number who left before the after meeting.

A short illustration explains what he meant by an up-to-date religious experience.

An old man arose in a meeting saying that thirty-eight years ago he had experienced religion, when Mr. Geil stopped him and asked whether he had experienced any religion within the last twenty-four hours and the man said nothing, but sat down. Too many, he said, are living on their past experiences while they should be living nearer Christ to-day than they did yesterday.

The life of John, the son of Zebedee, was used as a type of christian growth. Matt. iv. 21: shows him at his work; he becomes a believer in Christ, but he is not satisfied and pushes on to become a disciple and then an apostle. John was not even willing to rest content as an apostle, but kept moving on to become one of the three nearest Christ, as was seen at the raising of the daughter of Jairus, at the Mount of Transfiguration and again in the garden.

John did not stop at being even in the close relationship as one of the three, for we are told that he became "the one whom Jesus loved." As Prof. Drummond says he was not willing to live in the cellar when he could live in the second or third story. Why should we live in the cellar, the animal life, when we can live in the second story, the intellectual, or better, the third story, the spiritual life? or why should we always be content with the lower planes of spiritual life? Move up! Get nearer Christ.

Referring to the raising of Jairus' daughter, Mr. Geil said that he did not know what those present believed about miracles, but he wanted them to know where he stood—he believes in them.

The speaker urged christians to work as they did when they first became believers, but, not to stop there, but go on and up as John did.

At the after meeting the same quiet method of personal work was used as at former meetings, which has appealed to a great many as a most rational method, inasmuch as every person can quietly give his seasons and as far as possible these are not from the open bible. A man's reason is appealed to and not his emotions.

IN THE RAILROAD WORLD.

—The Lehigh Valley has recalled its track hands to work again, since the Hudson River accident. A sure and reliable road bed costs less than a coroner's inquest.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars to any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address

WOMAN'S PROGRESS IN JAPAN.

The Emperor and the Empress Both Believers in Modern Ideas.

At last the women of Japan are beginning to get their inning. The emperor himself is interested in their advancement. He hopes in time that they will attain the same position enjoyed by the women of Europe and America. The first step he took toward this advancement was to abolish stained teeth and shaved eyebrows. Next, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his marriage he introduced the idea of the celebration of a silver wedding into his country. On this occasion he gave a big feast and received countless presents. His female subjects were delighted at this, and said that no empress had ever been so honored, says the New York Sun.

The empress of Japan, Tusaka, is by no means kept in the background by her husband. She shares his throne, and is consulted on matters of national importance. More than this, she presides at his table, and this is an honor accorded to none of her predecessors. The empress, from all accounts, is quite an up-to-date woman, and has proven herself worthy of all her privileges. She is an active patroness of the Tokio women's hospital, which is conducted on the most modern scientific principles. She is also quite an athlete, and has a model gymnasium, erected solely for her benefit, in the palace. She practices there every day, and is also fond of riding. Who knows but in time she may take to the bicycle? The emperor has dedicated to her many of his most beautiful poems, which show that the bravest deeds have been inspired by feminine beauty. She is even more interested in the advancement of her sex than he is.

ONLY WOMAN'S THEATER.

Paris Is Building the First of Its Kind in the World.

Women of every country hereafter will be at liberty to defend their interests, assert their privileges and air their grievances through the medium of the drama or the opera, for Paris is building the first and only woman's theater in the world. It is to be devoted solely to the interests of women, and has its site next to the Women's club known as the Cercle Pigalle, near Montmartre, says the Detroit Free Press.

The only weak spot about the affair is that the manager is a mere man. This is disappointing. So long, however, as he is willing to do the drudgery and let honor and glory go to the lot of the women it does not very much signify; and, moreover, it is provided in the agreement that he shall take his instructions from the executive committee of the board of directors, which is composed of five women. He must be a wonderful man. At present he has seceeded in pleasing the entire board.

Mme. Loevy, who will direct the foreign department, is very confident as to its future. Heretofore, she says, the fact that a play was written by a woman has been sufficient in most instances to condemn it; but this sort of thing is to end, and women are to have precedence over man in at least one theater. Man, however, will be graciously listened to in the event of his writing plays or operas which bear on the subject of woman's rights, and he is promised a fair and unprejudiced criticism. Nationality is no bar.

HOW JAPAN COMMEMORATES.

Deeds of Valor in War Kept in Remembrance.

The military revival of Japan, which began with the conquest of China, showed itself in the various ways the great industries of the country celebrated the heroic incidents and victories of the war, says Atlantic. The toy-makers sent out legions of mechanical toys representing the flight of Chinese soldiers, the storming of Port Arthur and the fight of the Japanese flagship with the enemy's ironclads.

Artists commemorated the nation's triumphs in porcelain, metal work and lacquer ware. Designers portrayed them on the dresses of men, women and children. Tobacco pouches, sleeve buttons, hairpins, combs and even chopsticks were covered with representations that expressed the war spirit.

Bundles of toothpicks in tiny cases were offered for sale, each toothpick having engraved upon it, in microscopic text, a different poem about the war.

Gallant deeds were dramatized. The fatal courage of a Japanese soldier who sealed a rampart and opened a fortress gate to his comrades; the heroism of 14 troopers who held their own against 300 infantry; the successful charge of unarmed coolies upon a Chinese battalion were reproduced before thousands of spectators. Mr. Hearn mentions one incident whose realistic portrayal must have thrilled the audience—the death of the bugler, Shirakami Genjiro.

At the battle of Song-Hwan this Japanese bugler was ordered to sound the charge. He had sounded it once when a bullet passed through his lungs, throwing him down. His comrades tried to take the bugle away, seeing his wound was fatal. He wrested it from them, lifted it again to his lips, sounded the charge once more with all his strength and fell back dead.

A French Physician Says Rural People Suffer Most from Cancer.

A medical student, before he can begin active service in France, must write a treatise on some medical subject which will be approved by the government experts, says the Kansas City Journal, Dr. Noel, who recently obtained his diploma, wrote a treatise on cancer, which has attracted the attention of scientists. According to his opinion cancer is due to vegetable germs, which infect the human system, either through manual contact or through absorption or inhalation of the poison with water or food. According to statistics cancer prevails more in districts surrounded by forests and along the banks of rivers than in places where vegetation is scarce. Dr. Noel began a careful investigation around his home at Lyons. Birch, elm and willow trees predominated. He collected specimens from thousands of these trees and a score of specimens found on [illegible] poems. A dog, inoculated [illegible] in a few days showed every [illegible] of cancer.
